

ONE STORY: RAZI SOCIAL MEDIA CONTEST

These are the rules for the One Story: Razi Social Media organised by the National Library Board (NLB). By entering this contest, participants confirm agreement to all the rules.

How do I participate?

From 10 January 2022 1800 to 20 February 2022 23:59 hrs (Singapore time), NLB is organising a social media contest through National Reading Movement Facebook and Instagram accounts.

To participate:

For Facebook:

- a. Answer the weekly question.
- b. Include a screenshot to show that you have borrowed a copy of the book Razi from NLB.

For Instagram:

- a. Answer the weekly question.
- b. DM us a screenshot to show that you have borrowed a copy of the book Razi from NLB.

All entries must be written in English.

Who will win prizes?

Two weekly winners from Facebook and from Instagram will each win a prize.

For open-ended questions, winners will be based on the most creative answers as selected by NLB.

For factual questions, the first 2 correct answers from Facebook and first 2 correct answers from Instagram will each win a prize.

Who can participate ?

Any person who lives in Singapore can participate except for (i) NLB staff and their immediate family members and (ii) contractors for NLB who are involved in organising this contest.

You do not have to be an NLB member to participate.

Can I send in multiple entries?

Each participant can only submit one entry.

What are the prizes?

Winners will each receive $50 or $70 voucher from Kinokuniya.

When will the winners be announced?

Winners will be contacted via Facebook or Instagram Direct Message.

NLB will pick the winners and decisions are final.

How do I collect the prize?

Winners must respond to NLB's private message and provide the following details: (a) Name (b) Handphone number (c) Address.

Winners must send the required information within 7 days; otherwise prizes may be forfeited.

The $50 Kinokuniya voucher will be sent to the address provided.

If requested by NLB, winners must agree to be photographed or videoed in relation to the prize giving.

Who owns the rights to content?

Participants must ensure that they post only content (e.g. words, images, sounds and videos) written or created by them or where they have received permission to use for purposes of this contest.

NLB does not claim any copyright to the content posted by participants.

All participants give NLB the perpetual and world-wide right to exhibit, present, publish and archive the content in print, online (and successor platforms) or on any media for any NLB purposes without the payment of any fee. This same right applies to any videos or photographs of prize-giving as may be organised by NLB.

Updates

Check the National Reading Movement Facebook and Instagram page for updates on the rules and this contest. Unexpected circumstances may require NLB to change the rules or prizes at any time or to cancel this contest at NLB's sole discretion.
